INTERNATIONAL

PATHOLOGY CONFERENCE

2023

In Association with

LAPM-AP-CHP

Organized By:

DEPARTMENT OF PATHOLOGY
AIIMS MANGALAGIRI, AP, INDIA

Welcome Address

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

It is our honor and pleasure to invite you to the first International Pathology Conference organized by the Department of Pathology, AIIMS Mangalagiri, AP, India in association with (LAPM-AP CHP). The theme of the Conference is “Diagnostic Updates and Molecular Advances in Cancer” which shall be conducted in hybrid mode.

Many morphological diagnostic and molecular updates have occurred in most of the organs in recent years which requires precise diagnosis with various therapeutic and prognostic implications. We have an eminent list of National and International Guest Speakers from recognized Medical Colleges and Institutes. We hereby assure a comprehensive learning experience and interactive discussions. The PGs who attend will be extremely benefitted. In addition, there will be attractive awards/ prizes/ participation certificates for the PGs. We encourage all the PGs and faculties to register and actively participate in oral/poster presentations and quiz competitions.

The venue is the sprawling permanent campus of AIIMS Mangalagiri spread across a mighty 183 acres of land surrounded by rugged rocky mountains from all sides which draws a certain kind of fearless, hardy, intrepid, hard-headed, and eccentric people. We invite you all to experience the peaceful, serene beauty, lush green mountains, and spacious and pollution-free environment of AIIMS Mangalagiri which undoubtedly is going to leave you mesmerized and awestruck.

Save the Dates and enjoy our Hospitality.
