'Poorti – A post mastectomy kit'

Restoring confidence, dignity and femininity of breast cancer survivors

www.aarnabiomed.in

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Aarna Biomedical Products Private Limited (ABPPL), a nascent social healthcare enterprise, has developed a proprietary (registered and patented) post mastectomy kit aimed at post-surgical prosthetic rehabilitation of breast cancer patients who have lost their breast(s) so as to restore their confidence, dignity and femininity, which is named as the Poorti kit

Poorti kit is holistic, high in quality, technically superior than any imported prosthesis and affordable. It comprises of one light weight silicone prosthesis (available in ten different sizes), two prosthesis covers (available as per the selected prosthesis), two pocketed bras (available in white, black, fawn & camel colour and in eight different sizes per size) and one prosthesis holder (available as per the selected prosthesis shape). All the aforementioned components are accommodated in a concise and waterproof outer kit.

The lifetime of wearables like spectacles, apparel is never suggested – the durability of Poorti kit equals care and compliance of the instructions for usage. Frequently Asked Questions are available for perusal on below link: <https://www.aarnabiomed.in/faqs>
